

Amanda Martin, M.S, PCC
Professional Clinical Counselor
License # E.0500756

624 East Main Street
Lancaster, Ohio 43130
(740) 687-0042

EDUCATION:

- 2006-present Ongoing participation in continuing education units as offered. Workshops include differential diagnosis, attachment issues, disruptive behavior disorders, and ethics
- 2004-2006 University of Dayton
Master's Degree in Clinical Counseling, GPA 3.95.
Coursework included diagnosis and assessment, abnormal psychology, marriage and family therapy, multicultural counseling, and group counseling
- 1995-2000 Muskingum College
Bachelor's Degree in Psychology and History, GPA 3.4

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE:

- 2006-present Mid Ohio Psychological Services, Lancaster, Ohio
Currently employed as a Professional Counselor
Responsibilities include:
- Assessing and treating mental and emotional disorders in adults, adolescents, and children
 - Administering a wide range of assessment instruments, such as personality, achievement, and adaptive testing
 - Providing home based therapy with families to assist in implementation of parenting skills, conflict resolution skills and other practical problem solving skills to improve family relationships and overall functioning
 - Facilitating personal growth and progress toward treatment goals in both individual and family settings
- 2005-2006 Mid Ohio Psychological Services, Lancaster, Ohio
Counselor Trainee, participated in practicum and internship
Responsibilities included:
- Treatment planning, assessment, and differential diagnosis
 - Learning practical education regarding treatment interventions
- 2001-2005 Mid Ohio Psychological Services, Lancaster, Ohio
Case Manager, responsibilities included:
- Provide community support and monitoring of adult mentally ill clients
 - Provide linkage and coordination with other treatment providers as needed

AREAS OF COMPETENCE:

Personal and social counseling, child and adolescent counseling, family counseling, counseling of sexual abuse survivors, career counseling, and diagnosis, assessment, and treatment of mental and emotional disorders.