ABUSE AND NEGLECT AND DUTY TO WARN

The agency made two reports to Children Services during the month of November.

County of Report	Number of Reports
Fairfield County	2

The first report was made after a client made allegations of sexual abuse against a parent. The second report was made after a client made allegations of physical abuse against a parent. Both reports were forwarded to the Fairfield County Sheriff due to residence addresses outside of the city limits.

The agency did not have any “Duty to Warn” reports for the month of November.

The agency had one report to adult protective services to report for the month of November. A report was made after the grandmother of a client reported a physical altercation with the client in her care had taken place.
